

Do not preempt Indiana's "No-Call" privacy law with a weaker Federal version. One of the basic tenants of common law is your right to privacy in your own home. We should not be bothered by telemarketers. If I am interested in their product, I will call them.